

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1745.

Florence, July 17.

OUR most Serene Grand Duke has recalled his Swiss Guards, his Gen'darmarie, and his Regiment of Horse Guards; whence we take it for granted, that they are to attend our Sovereign on his Publick Entry into, and his Coronation at, Franckfort. We are fully persuaded from hence, that notwithstanding the mighty Opposition form'd against him, the Imperial Crown will be very shortly plac'd upon his Head. It is reported that Orders have been likewise given for the Coaches, and all the Furniture of the Royal Stables, to be sent to Vienna; and that we are to hasten the Payment of the Money lent heretofore upon Plate and Jewels, by the State of Genoa; which, at this juncture, will not perhaps be found a very easy Task. We are informed, that the Neapolitan Troops which were to have marched from Orbitello, and the other Garisons on the Skirts of our Dominions, thro' this Grand Duchy, in order to pass thro' the Territories of Lucca, into the State of Genoa, have received counter Orders, and are to march into the Bolognese.

From the Grand Duke of Tuscany's Head Quarters at Hiedelberg, July 31.

Our Army is encamped along the Neckar, over which we have four Bridges; so that we can move as the Exigency of Affairs may require. His Royal Highness has fixed his Head Quarters here, that he might the more readily confer with the several Princes of the Empire, who, on this Occasion, are disposed to confer with him, in reference to the Army of Observation which will be very speedily formed in the Neighbourhood of Franckfort, pursuant to the Proposition made for that Purpose by the Bishop of Bamberg and Wurtzburg. A great Council of War was held this Morning, in order to consider the Expediency of remaining where we are, or pursuing the French, as we did last Year, to the Frontiers of their own Dominions; but after many Debates, it was for many Reasons judged most expedient to continue here, at least till the Dyet of Election is over; after which, the States will probably determine whether the Honour of the Empire does not require that they should demand an adequate Satisfaction from France, not only for the Insults which particular Princes and States have received, but for those that have been offered to the whole Body. There is actually a Minister here from the Elector Palatine; and some People say, that his Negotiation is so far advanc'd, as that the Preliminaries in a few Days will be ready for Signing; which is so much the more probable, because strict Orders have been given to our Irregulars to avoid plundering.

Hague, August 5. We can scarce depend upon any Thing that we hear almost from any Quarter; the very last Post from Franckfort seem'd to represent the Imperial Election as a Thing quite at a Distance, and of which nothing could be affirm'd with Certainty. But by the Letters that are arriv'd this Day, Things are come quite about again: Six Ambassadors have deliver'd in their full Powers, and it is believ'd that we shall very soon hear of the Elector of Mentz's Arrival, and of the Day's being fix'd for the Determination of this great Affair. In like manner, the last Advices from the Grand Duke's Army gave us reason to hope that the Prince of Conti's Forces was so broken, that a Diversion might be made by penetrating into Alsace; which would have forc'd the Most Christian King to have abandon'd his late Conquests, as he did last Year. But now it seems a contrary Resolution is taken; both Armies are entrenching themselves, and the Grand Duke is resolv'd not to advance; and the French talk of becoming strong enough to force him to retreat. The same Sort of Style prevails in Flanders also; from whence our last Advices say, that a Reinforcement of 5000 Men was actually arriv'd, and that they expected 9000 more; on the Arrival of which, they were resolv'd to return to their Camp at Anderlecht.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, July 30. This Day came in here the Southwell, Capt. Furnell, and the Sheerness, Captain Furnell, both Privateers of this Place, from a Cruise, in a shattered Condition; having had an Engagement the 16th Instant with two French Frigates of 36 Guns each, which lasted Six Glasses, within 30 Yards Distance of each other. The French Frigates had under their Convoy a rich Ship bound from St. Malo's for Cadiz, who kept at a considerable Distance during the Time of the Action, which was very bloody. In the Engagement, Capt. Furnell, of the Sheerness, with the Master, and Eleven Men, were kill'd, and about 40 wounded in a bad manner. The Master at Arms, and 14 Men, were kill'd in the Southwell, and about 35 wounded; many of whom have lost their Legs and Arms. They damaged the French greatly in their Hulls, Sails, and Rigging, which put one of them on the Career, and then ran away. The Southwell would have follow'd them, but all her Rigging, Sails, and Topmasts were so shatter'd and fir'd away, that she lay muzzled in the Sea, and receiv'd 31 Shot in her Hull, some Twelve-pounders. This happen'd 14 Leagues West of Ushant.

Dover, July 31. Just came in the Eagle Privateer, Captain Hazeley, from a Cruise, and has brought in a French Privateer of Four Carriage, and Eight Swivel Guns, and 45 Men. She is a new Vessel belonging to Calais, has been but four Days at Sea, and has taken one Prize; which, I hear, is a Brigantine laden with Slaves. In the Chase the Eagle kill'd two of the Frenchmen, and wounded one more, but receiv'd no Hurt themselves.

Deal, July 31. Wind S. Arriv'd last Night his Majesty's Ship Milford, from a Cruise. Came down the St. George Privateer, Captain Medcroft, bound on a Cruise, in Confort with the Cruiser Privateer, Captain Sutherland; and remain with the Men of War, and Outward-bound as per last.

LONDON.

They write from Copenhagen, that the Success of their India Trade has been so great of late Years, as to engage them to think of doubling their Capital; and that it is thought some Propositions of this Kind will be made publick, as soon as the Sentiments of the principal Merchants at Hamburg shall be known.

Some private Letters from Dresden say, that the French Court has renew'd the Propositions formerly made to his Polish Majesty, and augmented them, by promising to use all their Interest in Poland in Favour of the Electoral Prince; but without Effect.

The Abbe de la Ville, at the Hague, having lately said in private Conversation to one of the States, at a Publick Minister's Table, That he could with the Councils of the Republick were less fluctuating; he was answer'd by that Member, That whenever this happen'd, those of France would be less steady, and their Tendances less common.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Ulcers, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplora-ble Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thor-oughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the U-ry Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured off in it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Ulcers, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without im-pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be-speak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Rel-icks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to re-main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbatick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SIPHYLICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Ef-ficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accom-plish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ap-pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RANBY'S Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready seal'd up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
